READ: Revelation 11:7-14

THINK: As you continue to consider the ministry of these two witnesses, ask yourself the following questions: How would you summarize the ministry of the two witnesses? Why does it come to an end? Why are they “indestructible” while they prophesy, but once finished are targets for murder? What is the intent of the beast/Antichrist in killing the two witnesses? What do you make of the global hatred for the two witnesses as epitomized in the desecration of their dead bodies for 3½ days and the accompanying “celebration”? How do you imagine the world responding to the resurrection and ascension of the two witnesses? What is the significance of the earthquake in Jerusalem and the loss of life there? What is the essence of the somber warning of v14?

DO: What has Revelation 11:1-14 taught you about being a witness for Jesus Christ? What has been the most difficult thing about living out your faith at work? At school? At home? Why is there such difficulty?
