Psalm 128:1-6

BIG IDEA: Dads can make a big difference.

*“Fathers, don’t stir up anger in your children, but bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.”
Ephesians 6:4 (CSB)*

Gauge your relationship with God.

Gauge your relationships at work.

Gauge your relationships at home.

Gauge your relationships in the community.

Gauge your relationship with your posterity.

BIG IDEA: Dads can make a big difference.

Read: Re-read Psalm 128.

Think: Think about your father and some of your most significant life experiences as a child, then ask yourself the following questions: What type of blessings are promised the “man who fears the Lord”? How are individual blessings related to national prosperity (v 5-6)? Will happy, godly families lead to a prosperous, peaceful nation? Why or why not? How or how not?

Do: If you can, give your Dad a call and let him know how he has made a positive difference in your life. If you are a Dad, check the “dashboard” of your life and see how your relationships are doing right now. Are you cruisin’ along just fine, or is it time to go into the shop for major repairs?
