Revelation 6:1-8

BIG IDEA: God’s purposes for the future will prevail.

“Then I saw the Lamb open one of the seven seals...”

Revelation 6:1a (CSB)

NOTE: And now for a word about The Rapture.

☞ God’s judgment has a just purpose.

- God will prepare Israel for their Messiah.
- God will vindicate His holiness by judging the nations.

☞ The Seven Seal Judgments.

- SEAL #1: The exploits of the Antichrist.
- SEAL #2: World-wide warfare.
- SEAL #3: World-wide famine.
- SEAL #4: World-wide loss of human life.

NEXT TIME...

- The Final 3 SEAL judgments.

BIG IDEA: God’s purposes for the future will prevail.

READ: Revelation 6:1-8

THINK: Contemplate the purpose and extent of God’s future judgment on the Earth and then ask yourself the following questions: Who (or what) do each of the four horsemen represent? Why? The luxury items (wine and oil) are still available but the basic foodstuffs are scarce and costly. What does this tell you about the economic situation as the Tribulation Period unfolds? In what sense do the first three horsemen lead to the fourth? How have the forces of conquest, warfare, famine, and death operated throughout human history? How do they prevail today? What circumstances make this passage unique?

DO: Are you experiencing God’s judgment or His salvation? How do you know? How are you prepared for what the future holds?
